Kitchen Social Added to Client List of Return On Ingredients®

Westerville, OH—Return On Ingredients® is proud to announce to addition of Kitchen Social to their client list. Kitchen Social opened their first location in 2019 at The Point at Polaris on Lyra Drive and was started by Bravo Brio Restaurant Group (BBRG) veterans Brian O’Malley and Chef Phil Yandolino. Kitchen Social, an American style restaurant, is currently open for dinner every day with lunch Friday through Sunday and brunch on the weekends. Return On Ingredients® CEO Mark Kelnhofer also is a veteran of BBRG where they previously met.

Return On Ingredients® has been engaged regarding recipe documentation and costing to assist in the future growth plans of the company. Each quarterly menu change will be documented and costed by Return On Ingredients®. Currently there is one location with plans to expand in fall of 2021 to Dublin Market at Bridge Park. In addition, Return On Ingredients® will also assist in valuation for physical inventories for both locations. Return On Ingredients® is a full scale food service management firm focused on increasing profits and mitigating loss. We use the managerial cost principles and incorporate them into the restaurant management environment through our innovative consulting techniques. “By determining a more precise recipe cost, we can then become more methodical in the planning for profitability and growth” stated Mark Kelnhofer, President and CEO of Return On Ingredients®.
